

It took three years of painstaking planning to capture the architectural nuances necessary to achieve homeowner Randy Thompson's vision and an authentic old world look. Champ d'Or, meaning fields of gold and reminiscent of Kansas where Randy spent his childhood, boasts turrets, a copper encased dome, spans two entire waterfront lots, includes nine bedrooms, eleven bathrooms, six fireplaces, two kitchens and garage space for nine cars but Randy just humbly calls Champ d'Or home.

