

Homeowners Steve and Sharon have perfectly blended his traditional style with her contemporary style with a mix-and-match of colors, textures, woods and styles that create a cozy yet bold and trendy contemporary interior which will make you feel that you are “at home.”

A glass enclosed staircase provides an open airy view throughout the house and out onto the channel creating a visual connection to the living spaces.

A life size metal dye cut silhouette of Ginger Rogers and Fred Astaire reflects the homeowners love of old black and white movies and sits adjacent to the bar that was created by closing in a hallway.

4 asymmetrical barrel chairs in vibrant multi-colored fabric are placed around a game table.

A long breakfast bar with luxury chairs, built-in microwave above the oven, a second sink in the island, tall kitchen counters, raised dishwasher to reduce bending while working and a large pantry makes preparing meals fun instead of a chore.